Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

This Form 8-K is being furnished to report that Marcus & Millichap, Inc. (the “Company”) had been subject to a cybersecurity attack on its information technology systems. The Company immediately engaged cybersecurity experts to secure and restore all essential systems and was able to do so with no material disruption to its business. The Company’s investigation of the attack is ongoing; however, at this time there is no evidence of any material risk or misuse relating to personal information.

The Company continues to work with its external cybersecurity experts to assess and enhance the security of Company systems and personal information. The Company carries cyber insurance, which it expects will cover the majority of costs related to this incident.

The information furnished on this Form 8-K shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference into any other filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K that are not statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act, which are subject to the “safe harbor” created by those sections. Such forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements concerning the Company’s plans to enhance its network security and the Company’s belief that there has been no material risk or misuse of personal information and that its cyber insurance will cover the majority of costs. Forward-looking statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “may,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “could,” “intend,” “target,” “project,” “contemplate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential” or “continue” or the negatives of these terms or variations of them or similar terminology. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements are risks and uncertainties associated with the Company’s business and financial condition in general, including the risks and uncertainties described under “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on March 1, 2021, as such risk factors may be updated from time to time in the Company’s periodic filings with the SEC. Such Annual Report and the Company’s other periodic filings are accessible on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. All forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and the Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this report.
